Sheppard Mullin sponsors CRT

Tuesday, August 8, 2006

The Chairmen's RoundTable (CRT), a San Diego-based, nonprofit volunteer organization that provides gratis business advice and mentorship to the area's private businesses, today announced that Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton LLP has signed on as the newest sponsor.

"We are very pleased to be a part of the Chairmen's RoundTable," said Michael Orlando, member of the Corporate Practice Group at Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton LLP's Del Mar office. The CRT provides our firm with the opportunity to work with companies on the rise in San Diego."

"Support from firms of the caliber of Sheppard Mullin helps to validate what we are doing at the CRT," said Tom Dorosewicz, chairman of the Chairmen's RoundTable. "They provide sponsorship because they recognize the value of what we are providing, see the opportunity they can bring to their clients, and are inspired by our mission."
