Vineyard Bank Signs on as Chairmen's RoundTable Sponsor

- Organizations partner to help companies address the challenges of growth -

San Diego, CA – April 3, 2006– The Chairmen's RoundTable (CRT), a San Diego-based, non-profit volunteer organization that provides gratis business advice and mentorship to local, private businesses, today announced that Vineyard Bank (NASDAQ:VNBC), one of California's strongest community banks, has signed on as a CRT sponsor.

"At Vineyard Bank we operate under one main philosophy - we realize to build a business you must first build relationships," said Patti Lazard, Senior Vice President and Managing Director of Vineyard Bank's San Diego banking center. "Building relationships means proactively working with our clients to understand their business and how we can assist in their continued success. Creating positive experiences and building relationships is how Vineyard Bank does banking. Working in partnership with CRT, we can offer our clients an invaluable mentorship experience which will help them identify and gain a perspective on their strategic issues."

"Vineyard Bank and the CRT have the same end goal," said Tom Dorosewicz, Chairman of the CRT. "We want to help local business owners and executives achieve success. The CRT members have 'been there, done that' and are happy to share what they've learned. It's their way of giving back to the community and they truly enjoy being mentors. Everyone wins."
